

Seminar Leadership & Coaching

The Seminar conveys specific knowledge in how to support and nurture individuals in their environment and coach them with special questions, challenges and situations of learning.

«We'll be done for if there isn't a junction coming soon»

What would a coach say?

Leadership

Beatrice Eyer, MSc., consultant for team and organizational development, coach trainer, general management.
Additional supervisors for the peer groups.

Context

The seminar conveys specific knowledge in how to support and nurture individuals in their environment and coach them with special questions and challenges. The participants will learn to explore the viewpoint of coworkers or coachees, to define their role as a leader and/or coach and to implement goal- and solution- oriented coaching, or to lead in a case-by-case situation.

Contents of the Seminar

The seminar contains 4 attendance modules spanning 9 days. The facilitated case studies, 1-on-1 coaching sessions, and the facilitated peer groups span another 4 half-days in addition to the modules, adding up to a total of 11 days all together. The transfer assignments, the case studies, and the topical assignments help support the internalization and the implementation in the work field.
